

Sales Dashboard Summary

This dashboard provides a visual overview of the sales performance across different dimensions such as time, region, and product category. The insights are derived from the Superstore Sales dataset.

1. Average Sales per Month

Visualization Type: Line Chart

Description: This line chart illustrates the trend of average monthly sales over the selected period. It highlights fluctuations in performance and allows for easy identification of peak sales months.

2. Over all Sales by Region

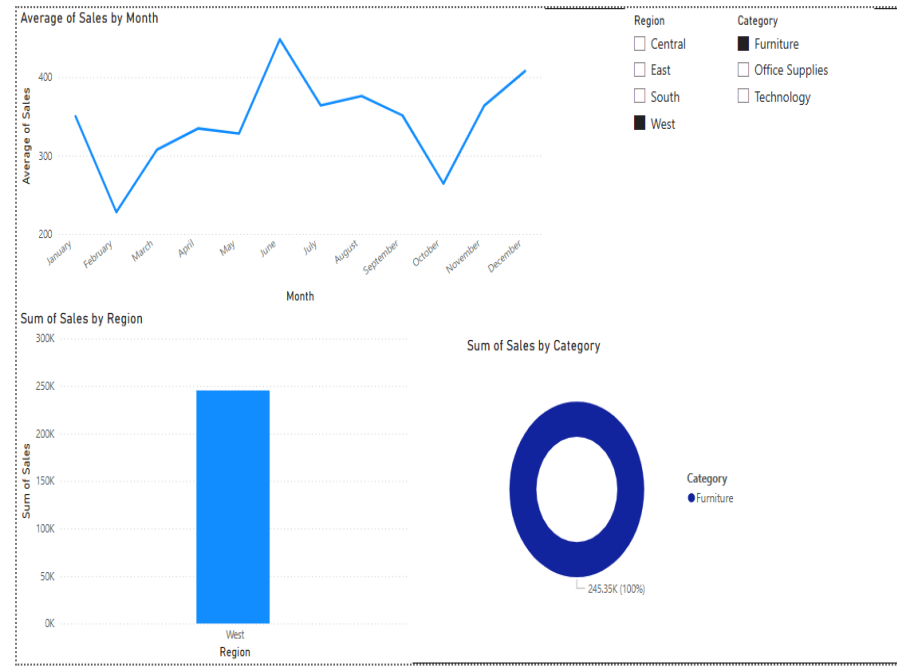

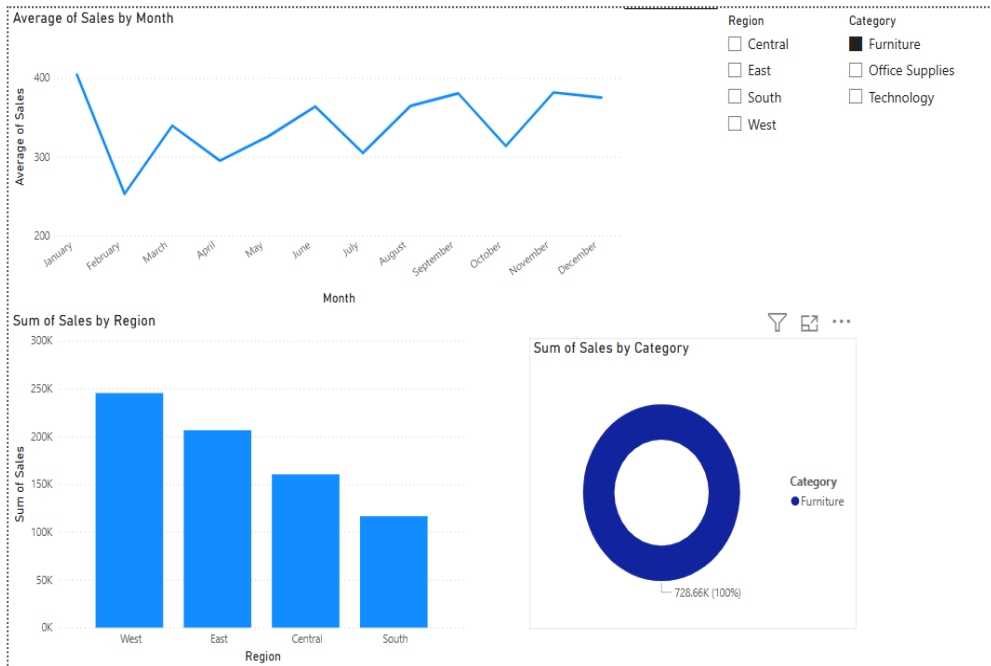

Visualization Type: Bar Chart

Description: This bar chart compares total sales across different regions. It provides a clear understanding of which regions are contributing most significantly to overall revenue.

3. Over all Sales by Product Category

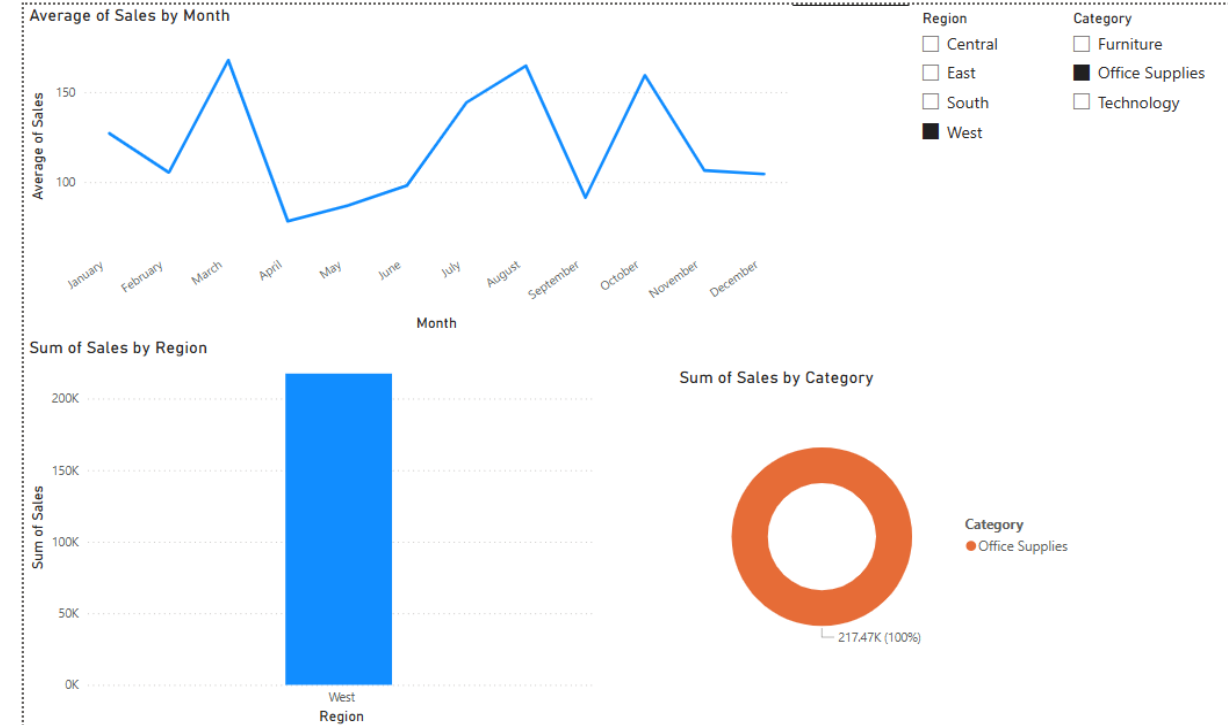

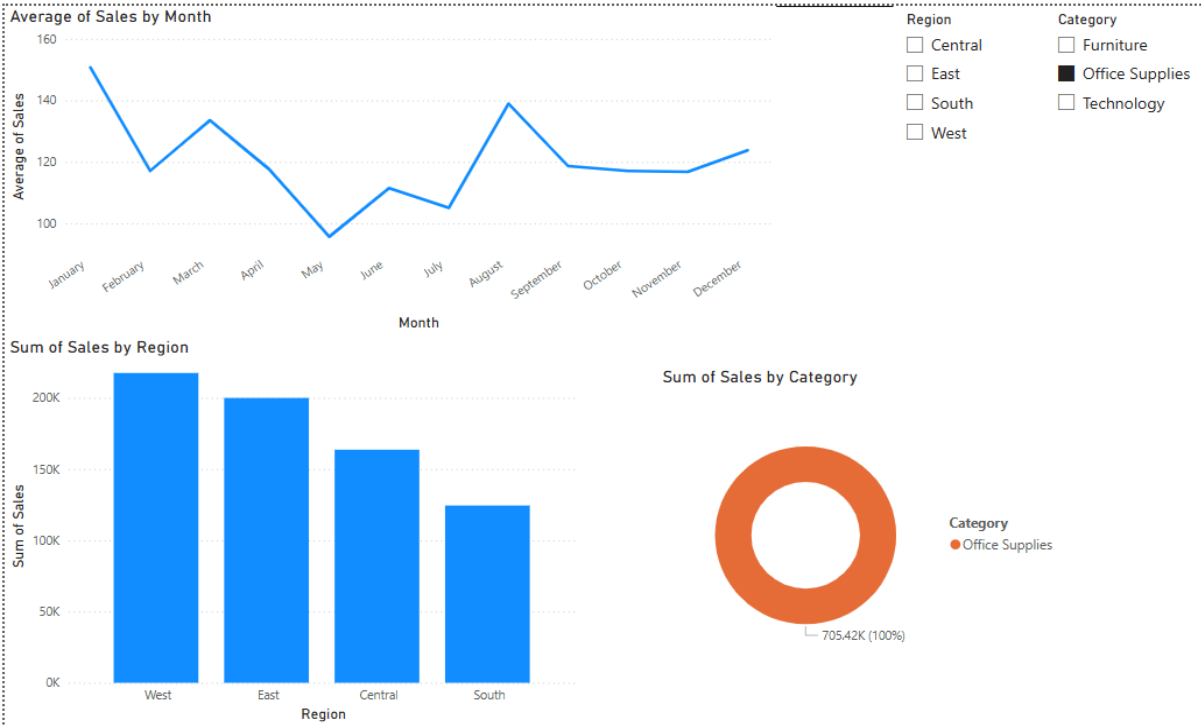

Visualization Type: Donut Chart

Description: This donut chart represents the distribution of total sales among various product categories. It helps identify the top-performing product segments within the business.

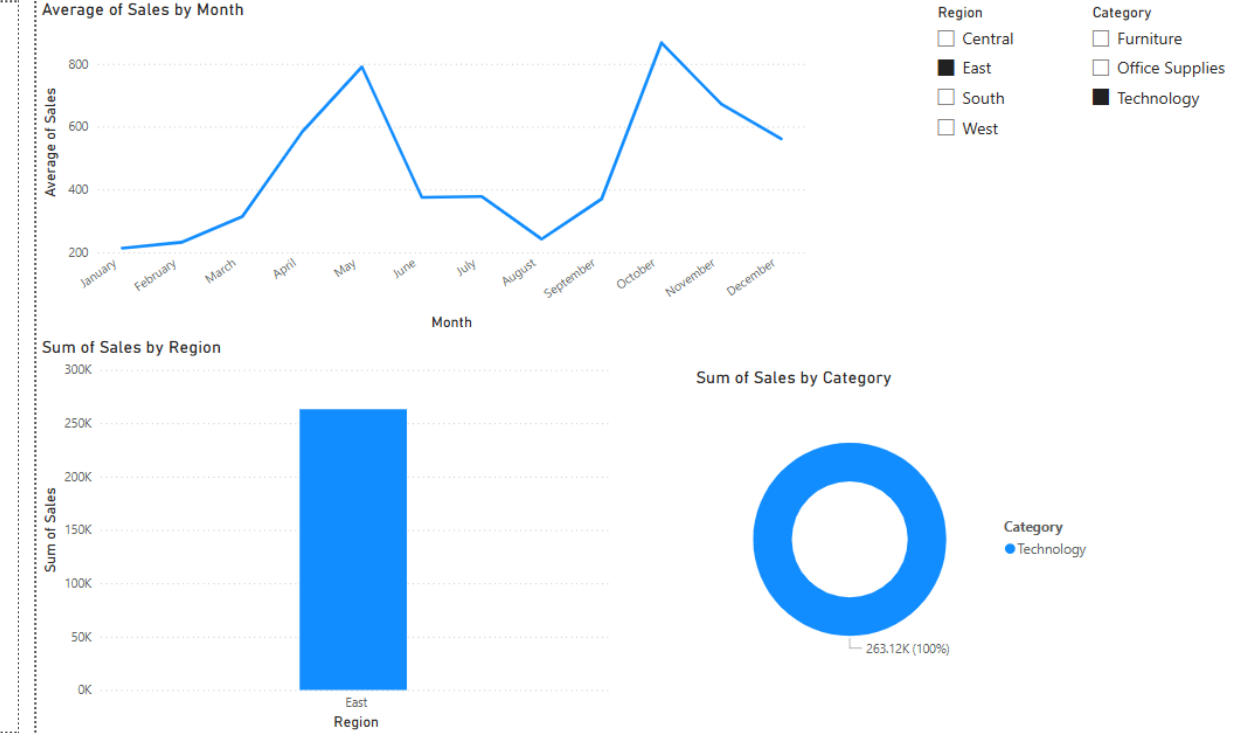

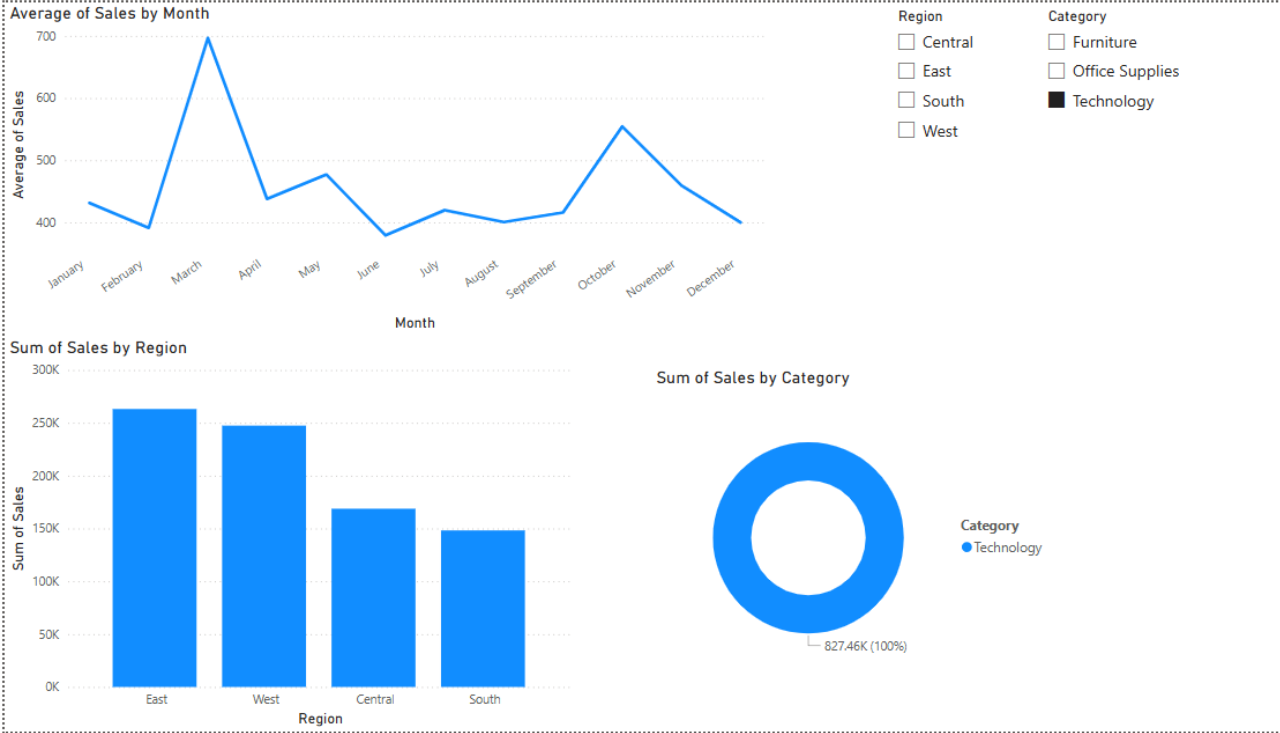

By selecting the furniture option in the category slicer it describes about the sales

- Most furniture was sold in the months of january
- West region was having most of the sales 245.35k in furniture mainly in the month of june
- The total sales of furniture were 728.66k

By selecting the office supplies option in the category slicer it describes about the sales

- Most office supplies was sold in the months of January through all regions
- West region was having most of the sales 217.47k mainly in the month of march
- The total sales were of 705.42k

By selecting the Technology in the category slicer it describes about the sales

- Most items was sold in the months of march through all regions
- East region was having most of the sales 263.12k mainly in the month of october
- The total sales were of 827.46k